

Every year, to kick off the holiday season, MIRA hosts a luncheon at the State House for immigrants and refugees, including newly sworn-in U.S citizens. Elected officials and MIRA members join us to celebrate our Commonwealth's rich diversity, share personal stories and make new connections. This year's event, on Tuesday, November 20, will celebrate emerging leaders in our communities, including a Young Champion of Justice.

Why should I donate to MIRA?

MIRA is the New England's largest coalition promoting the rights and integration of immigrants and refugees. Founded in 1987, we serve more than 1 million foreign-born people through policy analysis and advocacy, institutional organizing, education and training, leadership development, and communications. We bring together more than 130 organizational members, from direct service providers to immigrant-led groups, and connect, inform and empower them, uniting them behind common causes and helping them effect change.

What will my gift support?

Most immediately, your gift will allow us to provide a free Thanksgiving meal at the State House to immigrants and refugees from across Massachusetts. All proceeds beyond the cost of the event benefit MIRA's immigrant integration and citizenship programs, as well as our work to register new Americans to vote, build grassroots leadership capacity, and advance pro-immigrant policies at the state and local level.

Is this a good marketing opportunity?

Yes! More than 300 people attend our Thanksgiving event, and thousands more will be exposed to our promotional materials through MIRA's website, weekly bulletin and social media channels. This is a chance to reach a broad and diverse audience in a festive and inspiring context. Each sponsorship level comes with set benefits – see below.

To donate, please mail this form to MIRA Coalition, c/o Sue Parsons, 105 Chauncy St., 9th Floor, Boston, MA 02111, or email Sue at sparsons@miracoalition.org. You can also donate online at <http://bit.ly/Shared2018>.
